My dear Mr. Dulles:

Attached are four copies of a report on the field trip which we made to the Far East with two members of your staff. As you may know, we wrote the report in two parts and sent your agency copies of the first section about a fortnight ago. It dealt with Government-wide problems of personal allowances and differences, whereas this second section is concerned with substantive aspects of Central Intelligence Agency activities.

I will not comment further on the report itself but merely reiterate again our appreciation for the genuine cooperation and assistance rendered by the Agency throughout this venture. For us in the Bureau the trip has broadened greatly our knowledge and understanding of your work.

After you and your staff have had time to peruse the report, we should be most happy to discuss it in further detail. As you will note, it poses problems and raises questions which will require further Washington study for their resolution.

Sincerely yours,

R. M. Macy
